Letter Writing Guide

You can encourage suffering Christians to stand firm in their faith
—just by putting pen to paper!

The simple act of sending a letter or card can bring new comfort, hope and strength to brothers and sisters who are suffering for their faith. To be assured that you hold them in prayer...and that they are not forgotten...is one of the greatest gifts you can give to persecuted believers.

1. Pray

That God would give you the right words and verses to share.

For God to give the recipient strength to persevere and that they will know the Lord's compassion and mercy. (James 5:11)

2. Prepare

Write in short and simple English.

Do not dwell on the recipient's plight or your blessings.

Handmade cards or children's artwork can be very heartening to families.

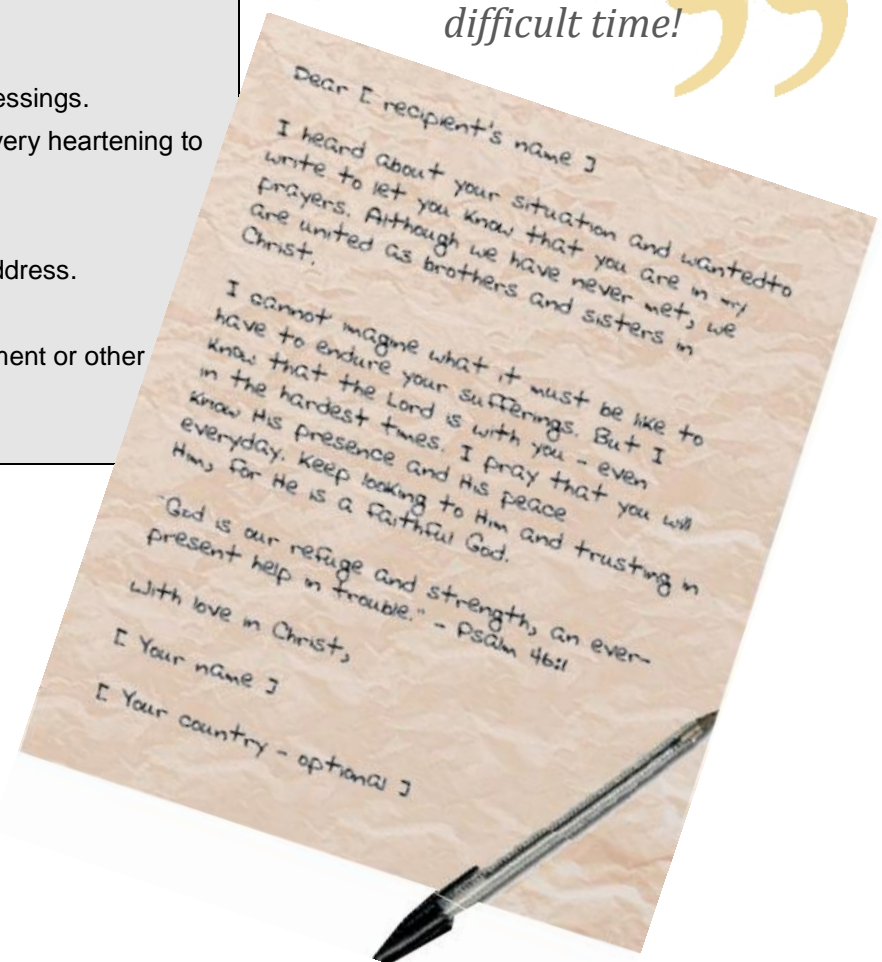

3. Protect

DO NOT mention Open Doors or your home address.

DO NOT include money.

DO NOT mention anything against the government or other religions.

We are very grateful to all our friends who are writing to us and supporting us in this difficult time!
